ARTICLE 9 GRIEVANCES AND GRIEVANCE ARBITRATION

9.01 Notwithstanding the provisions of the following paragraphs, the parties shall endeavour, wherever possible, to resolve complaints which could give rise to a grievance and arbitration in an informal manner through consultations between designated representatives of the University, the Union and the CECLs concerned.

9.02 Definition

Grievance is a formal written complaint, identified as a grievance, initiated by a bargaining unit member or by the Union (the grievor) and if the former in consultation with the Union, alleging that the University:

has contravened (by interpretation, application or administration) the provisions of this Agreement;

9.03 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 9.02 above, there shall be no grievance permitted concerning actions or situations attributable to the University which the Agreement defines as being within the University's discretionary authority.

It is also understood and agreed that bargaining unit members must be employees of the University at the time any grievance is filed except in circumstances where harassment and/or discrimination, arbitrary or in bad faith, are alleged.

9.04 Grievance Process

A. Step 1 (Complaint Level)

If the Union wishes to lodge a grievance on behalf of a bargaining unit member from whom it has received a grievance, the Union shall send the grievance to the Program Director within five (5) working days of the grieved action, or of the time the bargaining unit member or the Union first became aware of such action, or of the existence of a grieved situation.

Within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance, the Program Director in consultation with the Academic Co-ordinator or Chair/Director of the Department/School, where appropriate, shall meet with the bargaining unit member to hear and discuss and, if possible, resolve the matter. The bargaining unit member may be accompanied by a representative of the Union during such discussion(s), if the bargaining unit member so wishes. The Program Director and/or Academic Co-ordinator/Chair/Director, as appropriate, may be accompanied by another excluded employee at the meeting.

The Program Director in consultation with the Academic Co-ordinator/Chair, as appropriate, will deliver their decision within ten (10) working days of the date of the meeting. Failing settlement which is satisfactory to the grievor, then:

B. Step 2 (Complaint at Decanal Level)

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision under Step 1, or if no decision is forthcoming, the grievance may be submitted to the Dean.

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Step 2 grievance, the Dean of The Chang School or their designate, in consultation with the appropriate Faculty Dean, where appropriate, shall meet with the Union and the bargaining unit member to discuss, and if appropriate to resolve the matter. The bargaining unit member may be accompanied by a representative of the Union during such discussion(s), if the bargaining unit member so wishes. The Dean(s) or their designate may be accompanied by another "excluded" employee at such a meeting.

The Dean in consultation with the appropriate Faculty Dean, if applicable, shall deliver their decision within ten (10) working days from the date of the Step 2 grievance meeting. Failing settlement which is satisfactory to the Union, then:

C. Step 3 (Filing a Grievance)

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision under Step 2, or if no decision is forthcoming, the grievance may be submitted to the Vice-Provost, or their designate.

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Step 3 grievance, the parties will meet to discuss the grievance at a time and place suitable to them. In addition to the CECL concerned, up to three (3) representatives of the local Union, for example, the appropriate Chief Steward, Local Steward and Staff Representative from the Union, shall have the right to be present at such meeting. The Vice-Provost, or their designate, may invite to the meeting such other persons (for example, the appropriate Chair and/or Dean—The Chang School or Faculty Dean) that they consider advisable, to a maximum of five (5).

The Vice-Provost, or their designate, shall deliver a decision within ten (10) working days from the date of the Step 3 grievance meeting. If the decision of the Vice-Provost, or their designate, is not satisfactory to the Union, or if no decision is forthcoming, the complaint which was the subject of the grievance shall be referred to arbitration within ten (10) working days of receipt of the decision, as outlined in paragraph 9.09 below.

- 9.05 Within five (5) working days of the grieved action, or of the time the CECL, Union or group of CECLs first became aware of such action or of the existence of a grieved situation, the Union wishing to lodge a grievance in respect of an action or situation concerning the Union, or CECLs in general, or a group of CECLs serving under more than one Program Director, Chair/Director or Dean, may send such grievance directly to either the appropriate Dean(s) or Vice-Provost, or their designate, as it sees fit, and the provisions of paragraph 9.04 B. or C. shall respectively prevail.
- 9.06 Any grievance not submitted nor advanced within the time limits shall be deemed to have been abandoned. No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all the requisite steps of the grievance procedure.
- 9.07 Time limits provided in this Article, specifically paragraphs 9.04 and 9.05, may be varied or extended by specific written agreement of the parties in any particular proceeding.

Arbitration

- 9.08 Within thirty (30) days from the receipt of the decision from the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs, or their designate, and/or the Union as the case may be, either party may submit the matter to Arbitration. Either party, in its submission to arbitration, will stipulate that the issue shall be dealt with by a sole Arbitrator. At the time the matter is referred to arbitration, the referring party shall provide a list of no less than three (3) Arbitrators it recommends to hear the grievance. The Parties shall then enter into consultations with a view to selecting an Arbitrator acceptable to both.
- Failing agreement upon such a selection of an Arbitrator within ten (10) working days or failing availability within a period acceptable to both parties of the selected Arbitrator, either party shall have the right to ask the Ontario Minister of Labour to appoint a person as an Arbitrator.
- 9.09 No person may be appointed as an Arbitrator who has been directly or indirectly involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 9.10 The Arbitrator shall determine the procedure to be followed, which shall, however, afford full opportunity to the parties to provide evidence and to present arguments bearing on the case.
- 9.11 The Arbitrator, as the case may be, shall first determine whether the issue is arbitrable under the provisions of this Agreement (paragraphs 9.02, 9.03, 9.04, 9.05 and 9.06 above) and proceed or refrain from proceeding further according to that finding.

9.12 The Arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction to amend or add to any of the provisions of this agreement, or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or give any decision inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this agreement.

9.13 The Arbitrator shall have authority to disregard arguments based on minor procedural defects which may have occurred at the grievance or arbitration stage if these, in the opinion of the Arbitrator, have no essential bearing upon the substance of the issue.

9.14 Decisions of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties, but if the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision, and such clarification shall be binding.

9.15 Each party shall bear one half of the fees and expenses of the single Arbitrator.

Employer Grievance

9.16 The University may lodge a formal grievance with the President of the Union on the ground that the provisions of this Agreement have been contravened by the Union. The grievance shall be made in writing within ten (10) working days from the action giving rise to the grievance or from the time the University first became aware of such action or of a situation unacceptable to the University and alleged to have been caused by the Union or its members. When such a complaint has been made it shall include specific reference to the provisions of this paragraph and a detailed submission outlining the issue being submitted to arbitration, the grounds upon which redress is sought and the nature of the redress.

9.17 Further to article 9.16 above, designated representative of the University and of the Union shall meet within five (5) working days in an effort to resolve the grievance. If the grievance is not resolved in this manner within the next five (5) working days or within such further period as representatives of the parties may agree upon, the grievance may be referred to arbitration within ten (10) working days from the breakdown of the discussions between the representatives of the parties or within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance response. Thereafter, the provision of paragraphs 9.08 to 9.15 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply.

9.18 Mediation Dispute Resolution

By mutual agreement, a grievance may be referred to a Mediator at any time during the grievance or arbitration process. The parties shall share equally in the costs involved in the appointment of a Mediator. The Mediator shall not order a resolution of the grievance but may make recommendations to the parties.

- B. On receipt of the formal written grievance, the Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate shall schedule a meeting with the complainant and their union representative, if requested, to review the complaint, determine the areas of disagreement or dissatisfaction with the communication and the remedy sought by the complainant.
- C. The Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate shall then review all documentation, report(s) and evidence upon which the Dean's decision was made within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the grievance.
- D. At the completion of the review, the Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate, shall within ten (10) working days schedule a meeting with the complainant and the Union and shall communicate the results of the review including conclusions reached and disposition of the grievance.
- E. The Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate shall then further communicate their decision in writing to the complainant and the Union within ten (10) working days of the scheduled meeting referred to above.

10.04 Arbitration

- A. If the decision of the Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate is not satisfactory or if none is communicated within the time limits referred to above, the grievance may be submitted - within ten (10) working days after the expiry of the time limit set out above for the written communication of the decision of the Chief Human Resources Officer or their designate - by the Union to arbitration as set forth in Article 9.

10.05 Time Limits for Processing Harassment Grievance

- A. No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all the requisite steps of the grievance procedure outlined above and subject to agreement reached as per clause B. below.
- B. Time limits provided for in this Article may be varied or extended by specific written agreement of the parties in any particular proceeding.

10.06 Representation During Investigation

- A. The employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union representative at all and any meetings during the investigation process. Further, the employee shall have the right to consult with their union representative throughout the processes outlined in this Article.

10.07 Confidentiality

- A. All University and Union representative(s) who have access to information, or are in possession of documentation pertaining to matters/incidents involving harassment, shall hold such in strict confidence. This shall include refraining from discussions or releasing information in any form, except as required by law or required for the operation of the University. In cases where the University provides the Union representative(s) with the name(s) of witness(es) interviewed or names of individuals referenced in the interview(s) with witness(es), the Union undertakes not to disclose those name(s) to the member concerned.

10.08 Mediation

By mutual agreement, a grievance may be referred to a Mediator at any time during the grievance or arbitration process. The parties shall share equally in the costs involved in the appointment of a Mediator. The Mediator shall not order a resolution of the grievance but may make recommendations to the parties.

ARTICLE 11 APPOINTMENT PROCEDURE - POSTING

11.01 Posting Vacancies

- A. Decisions as to what position vacancies (teaching appointments) may be available for posting and all actions incidental to the process of reaching such decisions shall be within the University's discretionary authority.
- B. As soon as the Chang School, where appropriate, in consultation with the teaching department, is able to determine the total volume of teaching expected to be available, the Chang School shall post the position vacancies. The Chang School, in consultation with the teaching department, will post the position vacancies twice in an academic year, i.e.) Fall/Winter and Spring/Summer semester and where applicable the University shall post ancillary postings for the Winter term.
- C. Notwithstanding the above, short courses, brokered courses and educational events, corporate/specialized, independent learning/field study and newly developed courses shall not be required to be posted. At the end of the semester, the Chang School will provide the Union with a list of the above.
- D. In addition to paragraph C. above, an additional twenty-eight percent (28%) of the volume of courses subsequently available shall also be restricted. This twenty-eight percent (28%) restriction shall only apply from September 1, 2021 up to and including August 31, 2024 and is subject to Article 4.01 of the Collective Agreement. On the posting dates outlined in Article 11.02 below, the Chang School will provide the Union with a list of the restricted courses.
- E. Restricted means that the Chang School has the right to offer such restricted work to the candidate deemed most qualified without having to post the position vacancy. All such decisions and the process leading and incidental to such decisions are within management's discretion and are not grievable unless such decisions involve discrimination on a specified ground foreseen in Article 6, (No Discrimination); arbitrary, bad faith; or failure to follow any specific process set out in the provision of this Agreement.
- F. Of the seventy-two percent (72%) of position vacancies the University is required to post; no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of such vacancies shall be for credit courses.

- G. Of the courses with multiple sections, fifty-five percent (55%) of those first sections will be posted. Multiple section offerings means more than one section is being offered on the same night, at the same time, with the same start and end dates.
- H. Each position vacancy posting will be posted online. A copy of the posting will be forwarded to the local Union for information purposes.

11.02 Posting Information

- A. The following provisions apply only to position vacancies which are posted.

Pursuant to Article 11.01 B, posting notices shall be prepared and posted as follows:

At the conclusion of the third term of instruction, experience credits as per above formulate shall be credited to the applicable bargaining unit members retroactive to the first teaching appointment commencing July 27, 1994.

Experience credits shall only accrue during periods of active employment with The Chang School to a maximum of one (1) unit per term.

Upon recommendation of the Selection Committee, the Program Director shall offer a conditional offer of appointment to the selected applicant.

Normally, The Chang School shall not offer more than two (2) sections per semester relative to credit courses in total to a bargaining unit member irrespective of the source of such work - that is, from the pool of restricted credit courses and/or from the pool of posted credit course vacancies. The two (2) section maxima may be increased at the University's discretion in respect of operational requirements, but shall not exceed four (4) sections in any given semester. With respect to the limit of two (2) sections per semester relative to credit courses, the Spring semester shall be considered as one separate and distinct semester and the Summer semester as another separate and distinct semester.

On an exceptional basis, a total of four (4) sections may be taught within the Spring/Summer semester, with a limit of three (3) courses in each individual Spring or Summer teaching period being taught in any one teaching period.

Only CECLs who have taught two (2) courses in the Spring and two (2) courses in the Summer, within the same academic year, in at least two Spring/Summer semesters commencing in the Spring period and Summer period of 2018 will be entitled to teach two courses in each of the Spring and Summer periods for a total of four (4) courses for the duration of their time teaching at the Chang School.

The local Union shall be provided with the rationale for exceeding the maxima; however, such decisions are not grievable, unless such decision involve discrimination on a specified ground foreseen in Article 6, (No Discrimination); is arbitrary, is in bad faith; or failure to follow any specific process set out in the provisions of this Agreement.

The conditional offer of appointment shall contain relevant information concerning the appointment, including a statement that the offer is subject to sufficient student enrolment.

In circumstances where The Chang School offers a CECL a two (2) semester conditional appointment, such appointment will be conditional not only in respect of sufficient student enrolment, but also subject to the CECL satisfactorily meeting the obligations of a CECL as outlined in Article 12 of the Collective Agreement, and satisfactory teaching assessment. The second semester of the two (2) semester appointment shall be confirmed prior to the commencement of the subsequent teaching term.

Offers of appointment for each term will be issued up to forty (40) days after the final date of postings. Further, taking into account these forty (40) days, offers of appointment for the Fall term or the Fall and Winter term for credit and non-credit courses shall be issued by:

- For the Fall Term July 30th
- For the Winter Term November 1st (successful applicants will receive an email notification of Winter term sections on July 30th);

The Chang School on-line Calendar shall be the official source with respect to the actual dates of the employment contract periods within the period defined above.

The successful applicants shall be required to accept the offer of appointment on-line prior to the expiration date indicated on the appointment. Should the applicant not accept the appointment prior to the expiration date such appointment is nullified and the appointment shall automatically become null and void.

In the event that the conditional offer of appointment contract must be nullified, the Programme Director shall so notify the appointee (by telephone, electronic mail or any other communication vehicle which may be appropriate) no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the commencement of classes.

In the event that the conditional offer of appointment is nullified, the appointment shall automatically become null and void. 13.04 It is further understood that the CECL's appointment lapses on the terminal date, and as such the CECL's employment relationship with University ceases on their terminal date. Further, subject to the provisions of Article 25, Continuing Appointments, the University is under no obligation to rehire any CECL at any time once their appointment lapses.

13.05 Decisions concerning discharge or termination shall be made by the Dean in consultation with the Chair/Director and/or Academic Co-ordinator and the Program Director and shall -- unless the reasons for discharge are such as to render this impractical or inappropriate -- be preceded by a notice in writing to the CECL and the Union of the reasons for the discharge and termination, and by a meeting of the CECL with the Dean at which the reasons for the discharge or termination shall be stated. The CECL may be accompanied at the meeting by a representative of the Union which shall be advised, in advance, of the time and place of the meeting.

Such agreement shall be confirmed by the Program Director in writing and the CECL shall be paid $ 100.00 per hour for the agreed upon activities. Academic Freedom for CECLs is recognized in the context that the Chang School, in accord with Academic Schools/Departments where applicable, has the right to determine the mode of course delivery, general approaches to teaching and learning, technology, and standards of teaching practices. In accordance with the above, CECLs shall be accorded academic freedom in the presentation of that course consistent with the explicit rights and responsibilities as outlined in this Article. Subject to the preceding, the University and the Union agree that neither party shall interfere with, censor or discipline any CECL's academic freedom. Academic freedom does not require neutrality on the part of the individual. In exercising their freedom of expression, the CECL has the responsibility to adhere to the law and as such it does not confer legal immunity nor diminish the obligation of the CECL to meet their duties and responsibilities as set out in the Collective Agreement and their individual appointments. In exercising such freedom, the CECL is required to discharge their responsibilities in accordance with University policies and procedures. In statements outside the University, CECLs shall not claim to speak on behalf of the University unless authorized to do so. Should confusion arise concerning whether an CECL was speaking on behalf of the University, the CECL shall issue a disclaimer.

- 14.02 A CECL is the sole holder of copyright in their own lectures and in all copyrightable material produced pursuant to their Duties and Obligations, even if such material was produced solely on the University's time and with the University's facilities and resources. The University acknowledges that it has no interest in and no claim to any copyright for such works. The University also recognizes the right of the CECL to protect such copyright in situations where students or other University employees utilize such copyrightable material without the consent of the CECL.

- 14.03 A CECL who creates a copyrighted work in the course of their normal duties and responsibilities as defined by this Agreement shall grant the University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable and non-transferable licence to use such works in other, non-commercial teaching and/or SRC activities of the University subject to copyright requirements of academic journals and other vehicles of scholarly publication. This licence shall not apply to a CECL's personal documents, including unpublished lecture notes, course notes, lab notes, videos or audio recordings of any lectures or any work-in-progress. The CECL may withdraw the right to use because of dating or other bona fide scholarly reasons provided that the member has provided the University with reasonable notice of the change being sought and has been unsuccessful in effecting such change.

14.04 Intellectual Property Outside of University Obligations

In circumstances where a CECL creates intellectual property separate and apart from the CECL's duties and obligations pursuant to their appointment with the University under the collective agreement between the University and CUPE, Local 3904, Unit 2, meaning on the CECL's own time and using the CECL's own resources, the intellectual property so created will remain the property of the CECL and the University shall have no claim on such intellectual property.

Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education is successful in negotiating an organizational learning agreement with an external client, either as a stand alone entity (Ryerson University) or in partnership with private or public sector partners, and where the business solution involves, amongst other deliverables and activities which do not fall under CUPE's jurisdiction, the specific provision of instructing or teaching by individuals selected by Ryerson to do so, the University will remit appropriate Union dues to the Local for that portion of the contract which is specifically designated as teaching or instructing. Such reconciliation and transmittal of dues shall take place at the conclusion of the contract or if the contract extends over a number of years, annually thereafter, on the anniversary date of the signing of the contract until the expiration date of the contract between the Chang School and the external client. DRAFT

Arbitrator Kaplan issued an arbitration award involving the Ryerson Faculty Association (now utilizing XFA) and the University on June 28, 2018 regarding the current Faculty/Course Survey (FCS). The award included a direction to the parties to discuss possible modifications to the tool utilized to obtain student feedback. No agreement in this regard has been reached at the time bargaining this renewal collective agreement with CUPE Local 3904, Unit 2 concluded. The University commits to ongoing discussions to reach an agreement with CUPE Local 3904, Unit 2 regarding a revised FCS once an agreement with the XFA is reached on a revised FCS tool. As a result, until the parties (i.e. CUPE Local 3904 Unit 2 and the University) have reached an agreement on a revised Faculty/Course Survey, the Union agrees that its members will participate in utilizing the University Faculty/Course Survey that will be used by members of the XFA which may include the use of Winter 2022 Faculty/Course Survey until the Parties have reached an agreement on a revised Faculty/Course Survey. This possible interim tool shall be Appendix A and shall form part of the Collective Agreement; however, it will not be physically placed in the Collective Agreement due to fact that the parties may still be engaged in discussions following Arbitrator Kaplan's directives with respect to the current Faculty/Course Survey. The revised Faculty/Course Survey and associated processes that are arrived at with the XFA and the University shall replace the possible interim Faculty/Course Survey and shall form part of this Collective Agreement.

The Parties shall meet within thirty (30) days of the ratification of this Agreement to discuss revisions to the Faculty/Course Survey. Any agreed changes will be implemented for the following semester. Should the XFA and the University have not made progress in this regard, the parties will meet to discuss reasonable revised timelines.

The University shall not initiate disciplinary measures or deny a reappointment based solely on the results of the Faculty/Course Evaluation.

The Chang School has created webpage profiles for CECLs. It is understood and agreed that these profiles would be voluntary on the part of the CECL. The Chang School will communicate to CECLs, through appropriate venues, that they may include their webpage profile on the Chang School web site and that the Chang School provides CECLs with access to secured storage for materials, such as exams, tests, quizzes, etc.

DRAFT

The University is committed to fostering a collegial study and work environment that is free of discrimination and harassment. It is understood and agreed that CECLs may request reasonable accommodation in the workplace in accordance with appropriate University policies.

In order to ensure compliance with all applicable legislation, collective agreement provisions and University policies related to accommodation as described in this letter, the University will continue to educate and communicate to all stakeholders about their role and obligations in accordance with the University's policies and processes.

DRAFT

The University and the Union are committed to an environment where all members of the community are free from bullying and personal harassment. In assessing whether bullying and personal harassment may have occurred, the definitions and standards set out in the University's Workplace Civility and Respect Policy, the Guide to Civility, and any applicable legislation, although not forming part of the collective agreement, shall be considered, including by an arbitrator in any arbitration pursuant to this section.

The Union may file a grievance, in accordance with Article 9, alleging a course of conduct amounting to bullying and personal harassment if, after the University has exhausted any applicable internal steps, as outlined in the University's Workplace Civility and Respect Policy and the Guide to Civility, to respond to the situation, the employee is dissatisfied with the outcome. Such grievance will be filed at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

The member shall have the right to consult with their union representative and be accompanied by such representative at any meetings throughout the process outlined in this Memorandum of Understanding.

Article 11.04.B. currently outlines “effective interaction” as a selection criteria and it states the following:

- evidence of ability to interact effectively with adult learners and colleagues in a diverse and inclusive environment; ability to work effectively in groups; ability to resolve conflicts constructively; ability to carry out the duties and obligations of a CECL in accordance with Article 12; ability to empathize with others and consider varied perspectives.

The parties acknowledge that there is inconsistency in how selection committees are applying this criteria which undermines its utility and creates inconsistency in the selection process.

In order to address the above issue and to ensure compliance with all applicable legislation and the collective agreement provisions, the parties agree to a joint working group. The working group will consist of up to five (5) representatives appointed by the University and up to five (5) members of the local bargaining unit.

The joint working group shall:

- review the current application of this selection criteria with the understanding no prior process will be re-opened to challenge unless the process involves allegations of harassment or discrimination as defined in Article 10 where the Union, on behalf of the Employee, may file a grievance within one year after the incident or within one year of the series of incident taking place.
- define what objective metrics selection committees are to use to assess candidates against this selection criteria; and
- define what information applicants may provide to selection committees in order that they can be appropriately assessed against this selection criteria and such information shall be included in the job postings.

The joint working group will make non-binding recommendations to the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the President of the Union by no later than December 31, 2022. Within one month of receipt of the joint working group’s recommendations, the Vice-Provost, Faculty Affairs and the President of the Union shall meet to discuss and agree upon which recommendations shall be implemented by the parties, including the associated timeline(s).

In the collective bargaining discussions for a renewal collective agreement commencing September 1, 2021, the parties agreed to renew Article 8.01.A to G on the understanding that the parties would continue discussions during the life of the renewal collective agreement regarding the University's development of customized reports that the Union could extract from the eHR system that would be responsive to the information provided for in Article 8.01.A to G. If the Union is satisfied and agrees, in writing, that the information contained in Article 8.01.A. to G. can be created in reports from eHR, the University will train, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Union, the representatives from the Union who are authorized to use the eHR system on how to access such reports. Further, subject to the Union's reasonable satisfaction and written agreement that the information contained in Article 8.01.A. to G. can be created in reports from eHR, if these reports are developed and available before the expiry date of the renewal collective agreement, such reports will be utilized in place of the current process of the University providing the information in Articles 8.01.A to G on a go-forward basis.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have executed this Agreement in Toronto on this ____ day of _____, 2022.
